From: Quinton Zondervan
To: William Ruhm
Subject: Re: Supposed “Leak” Innacurate
Date: Saturday, April 14, 2018 3:00:10 PM

---

Thanks, see you tomorrow! :-) Best,

Q

Sent from my iPhone

> On Apr 14, 2018, at 12:26 PM, William Ruhm <wruhm123@gmail.com> wrote:
>
> Yes a lot of mishandling on our end, and a lot of learning occurring I can assure you.
>
> We had language of our resolution ready to make public, however Marc and Jan indicated a little over a week ago they would not support it as written (both had seen it), and asked to meet with us Tuesday 04/17 to rewrite the resolution differently.
>
> We will certainly bring the current resolution to share with you at our meeting tomorrow, although I understand that does not address the issue around being able to defend your position, since the resolution that comes up on 04/23 will likely look somewhat different than the one we share with you tomorrow.
>
> Thank you and again I apologize for the difficult position our mishandling has put you in.
>
> William
>
>
>
>
>
>> On Apr 14, 2018, at 11:50 AM, Quinton Zondervan <qyz915@gmail.com> wrote:
>>
>> Thanks William, I appreciate it. This whole situation has been badly mishandled and I hope there is a lot of learning going on in terms of how to do this better next time. Giving the opposition 3 week’s time to spin rumors and lies while we cannot defend our position because there is no language available to defend is never a good idea :-/
>>
>> Sent from my iPhone
>>
>>> On Apr 14, 2018, at 9:32 AM, William Ruhm <wruhm123@gmail.com> wrote:
>>>
>>> Hi Quinton,
>>>
>>> We noticed that a group calling itself “SJP Leaks” has posted false information on their Facebook page that inaccurately claims you are supporting our resolution.
>>>
>>> Neither JVP Boston nor any other group working on this campaign has been telling anyone you plan to vote yes.
>>>
>>> We want to state clearly that this information supposedly leaked from a JVP Boston member is entirely inaccurate. We don’t know where it came from. We are also demanding to this group, SJP Leaks, that it be removed.
>>>
>>> We regret that this false information is being spread, but I want to stress that we have not been telling anyone that you are voting with us.

>>>
>>> Feel free to contact me.
>>>
>>> William